

ARTICLE APPROVED
ON PAGE 1

Approved For Release 2005/01/12 : CIA-RDP88-01315R000400360007-5

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

24 August 1979

The U.S. rejected a Soviet complaint that the proposed MX mobile missile system would defy verification procedures under SALT II, the Pentagon said. Moscow was told the deployment system will allow spy satellites to count the missiles. President Carter is expected to approve a plan to place the missiles in shelters around a circular track.